Incidents

Abduction – On November 30 at 8:14PM, officers responded to investigate an alleged abduction that was reported to have occurred in the 12300 block of Mohican Rd in Woodbridge (22192) earlier that afternoon at approximately 5:30PM. The victim, a 14-year-old female juvenile, reported to police that she was walking with friends in the above area when, at one point, she separated from the group. As the victim walked by a nearby wooded area, an unknown man reportedly grabbed the victim's arm and pulled her into the woods. During the encounter, the man put his hand on the victim's mouth. As the victim's friends began to call out for her, the suspect let go of the victim and fled further into the woods. After rejoining the group, the victim did not disclose the encounter to her friends and continued home where police were contacted later that evening. Officers spoke to the friends who accompanied the victim, none of which reported seeing the suspect or hearing the encounter. The victim was not injured during the incident. The investigation continues.

Suspect Description:

A Hispanic male, with shoulder length black hair

Last seen wearing a dark-colored hooded sweatshirt with writing down the right sleeve, jeans, and white sneakers
